St. Lucie County 2014 Child Health Report Card

Prepared by the Roundtable's Child & Adolescent Health Network

95% Children get their vaccinations on time — Meeting Goal — Better than state average

91% Children have health insurance — Getting Better — Better than state average

21 per 1,000 Fewer teens are getting sexually transmitted diseases — Getting Better — Better than state average

48% More St. Lucie County Schools are Kids at Hope schools — Getting Better — Not tracked by state

80% Kids have healthy teeth — Getting Better — Not tracked by state

75% Moms are getting prenatal care during their 1st trimester of pregnancy — Getting Better — Worse than state average

St. Lucie County 2014 Child Health Report Card

Prepared by the Roundtable's Child & Adolescent Health Network

|
80%	Moms start their babies on breast milk	Getting Better	Worse than state average
26 per 1,000	Fewer teens are having babies	Getting Better	Worse than state average
17%	Teens using any form of tobacco in last 30 days	Staying stable	Worse than state average
342 per 100,000	Kids under 5 are being hospitalized with unintentional injuries	Getting Worse	Worse than state average
17%	Nationally, adolescent obesity grew 400% over the past 30 years. St. Lucie County is following these trends.	Getting Worse	Worse than state average

The Child & Adolescent Health Network works to identify challenges to child health in St. Lucie County. As a result of the annual report card data the Safe Kids Coalition has been formed to address injury rates and the 5-2-1-0 Program is being promoted to address childhood obesity.